Now Available – WGTHT Guidebook!

Exciting news – our Arcadia book, The West Georgia Textile Heritage Trail, will be available to the public on December 14th! Staff will be available to mail pre-ordered books if payment is received by December 10th. See our online pre-order form here. The books are also available for pick up in the Center as well.

Staff will contact those individuals and institutions who contributed to the book this week. Please let us know if you would your book before December 12th.

Arcadia Book Signings:

WGTHT Directors have arranged four book signings so far – two in Carrollton, one in Newnan, and one in Cartersville! See our Facebook events page and website events page for details and new signings.

Editors Ann McCleary and Keri Adams would love to give a brief presentation followed by questions and a signing at member institutions! Please contact wgtht@westga.edu or our Arcadia Marketing Specialist Jonny Foster to arrange a book signing and/or presentation event.

Coming Soon – Regional Meetings:

WGTHT Staff are busy planning one-day regional planning meeting for 2016. Starting planning now and be on the look out for registration details!

February 5, 2016 at the Columbus History Museum; February 19, 2016 at the Carrollton Depot; and March 5, 2016 at the Chieftans Museum in Rome.

Winter Break Closing:

The Center for Public History will be closed during the University of West Georgia's winter break -- December 12, 2015 through January 10, 2016.

We apologize for any inconvenience.

WGTHT Coordinator and Administrator Emma Murphy will promptly respond to any emails or phone messages after the college reopens on January 11, 2016.
